

Booooooring!

By Mark Opseth

Theme: The mission of the church is not to fill pews but to proclaim the life-changing message of Jesus Christ!

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 1:18; 2 Timothy 4:3

Characters: Two people. ONE should be the pastor, youth pastor or worship leader; TWO is a person sitting in the congregation.

---

ONE: Tonight, we are going to continue our look at the book of John...

TWO: (From the pew) Booooooring!

ONE: Excuse me?!

TWO: This is REALLY booooooring!

ONE: What's boring?

TWO: This church service! When are we going to play Dodge ball or football? If it doesn't pick up around here - I'm leaving!

ONE: No, don't go! Let me tell you a joke. You're gonna love this one. Ha, it's really funny! What do you get when you put fifty sows and fifty bucks in a pen? (pause) One hundred sows and bucks! Get it? One hundred sows and bucks?

TWO: That's the best you can do to keep me here? So long! (Gets up to walk out)

ONE: Wait! Give me another chance! How about this?! (Pulls out a top hat and cane and does a song and dance routine)

TWO: (Grunts in disgust and begins to walk out)

ONE: Please don't go – how 'bout a party! (Blows on a party horn and throws confetti)

TWO: (Sarcastically) This has sure been an entertaining morning! (Walks on)

ONE: (shouting quickly in desperation) Hey! Jesus died to save you from your sins because he loves you so much and he wants to make you into new creation and give your life purpose and meaning!

TWO: (Turns around and thinks for several seconds) Got anymore jokes?!
